ORDER

July 21, 2022

The Complainant alleged a superior court judge ignored exculpatory evidence during her son's criminal case.

The role of the Commission on Judicial Conduct is to impartially determine whether a judicial officer has engaged in conduct that violates the Arizona Code of Judicial Conduct or Article 6.1 of the Arizona Constitution. There must be clear and convincing evidence of such a violation in order for the Commission to take disciplinary action against a judicial officer.

The Commission reviewed all relevant available information and concluded there was not clear and convincing evidence of ethical misconduct in this matter. The complaint is therefore dismissed pursuant to Commission Rules 16(a) and 23(a).

Commission member J. Tyrrell Taber did not participate in the consideration of this matter.

My son _____ ended up with a trespassing charge over watching over a house for someone who had been living at a residence for some time. One day that son went to check on house some people showed up saying they were the owners, and my sons ends up with a trespassing charge. Turned out that the girl who takes my son to watch house had actually broke in after owners had abandoned house for over a year. Then she ended up in jail facing _____ and a _____ for _____ name is _____. My son ends up locked up caught a case over helping someone. There were witnesses that knew my son was innocent that his situation was not like most because the detective ended up giving the girl who had broken in and took over the home a favor of doing her _____ sentence for just _____ in return for that girl putting all blame on my son. Basically, set him up. We submitted and filed with the court testimony statements on _____ behalf that he was being done wrong and that we were witnesses of his innocence and of the situation and Judge _____ gave no response he did not ever allow witnesses for my son who knew of his innocence to speak on my son's behalf. Filed with the court statements were not submitted towards the case and any time we complained my son was then hit with even made-up charges by detective who did not charge the girl as he promised to victims which we had spoken too because we are neighbors. _____ had just met _____ had gone as far as showing fake rental agreement. There had never been complaints by anyone she had been at house for some time we had even called police at one point to ask of _____ rented that house and police said long as there were no complaints then no reason to assume. she wasn't. We let the iudge know of every detail, but it truly seemed he just did not like _____. He even kept _____ locked up for over _____ knowing that things like locking someone up when they're innocent isn't good positive he never expressed any negative feedback to the judge. He always respected the judge. _____ always went along with what the judge said and came to sentencing Judge _____ goes and gives a verdict towards old charges and traffic citations that _____ had in the past instead of crediting it towards any time done like it would and normally goes for people. Yet _____ lawyer made _____ believe that his time in jail would be credited for charge he was facing. There were no other legal issues that _____ had. No legal issues going on prior to trespassing.

Every time that I tried standing up for my son, my son would end up facing other charge out of nowhere. His circumstances and the fact that he truly did not intentionally go on to someone's property did not matter at all to Judge _____. We had even offered to take lie detector test. A witness came up that had seen _____ brake into that house one day and he submitted a letter to the judge on my son's behalf it didn't matter. His case went forward as if they were dealing with someone who was completely guilty. I complained again then they sued my son's past to keep my son locked up. I pleaded with the judge. I begged the judge to hear us out. It did not matter and when he would address my son in court his voice sounded full of hate. What do people expect from a mother when she knows her son did no intentional wrong, what do people expect a mother to do when she sees and knows her son is being done so unfairly. Things happen but when a case gets to the judge, the judge is supposed to hear people out. He is not supposed to go along with the actions if an officer who goes about things wrong and puts things all on someone else just because he wants to do something for a pretty girl. The truth is supposed to matter then my son's personal life with a mental health agency got taken into his case issues with a mental health agency that we as a family was trying to deal with cause my son got side effects and always been normal and ended up misdiagnosed that we were dealing with. It got taken into his case next thing you know my son is being medicated however they want I get a no contact order although I'm the mother I know more than any of them what has affected my son what hasn't and Judge _____ just bashes my son's name next thing, things are worse and judge who said it was ok for my son to go to _____ where he would have family support suddenly then turned just down right ruthless she denied what she first told my son he ca do then she was ordering my son to be _____ at a _____ we were not allowed to speak to my son or see him. He needed up leaving a _____ out of fear of the judge's ad their intentions he came to family with him with the meds.
