

State of Arizona
COMMISSION ON JUDICIAL CONDUCT

Disposition of Complaint 22-050

Judge:

Complainant:

ORDER

October 20, 2022

The Complainant alleged a city court judge used his judicial office to promote a business.

The role of the Commission on Judicial Conduct is to impartially determine whether a judicial officer has engaged in conduct that violates the Arizona Code of Judicial Conduct or Article 6.1 of the Arizona Constitution. There must be clear and convincing evidence of such a violation in order for the Commission to take disciplinary action against a judicial officer.

The Commission reviewed all relevant available information and concluded there was not clear and convincing evidence of ethical misconduct in this matter. The complaint is therefore dismissed pursuant to Commission Rules 16(a) and 23(a).

Commission members Colleen E. Concannon and J. Tyrrell Taber did not participate in the consideration of this matter.

Copies of this order were distributed to all appropriate persons on October 20, 2022.

Ms :

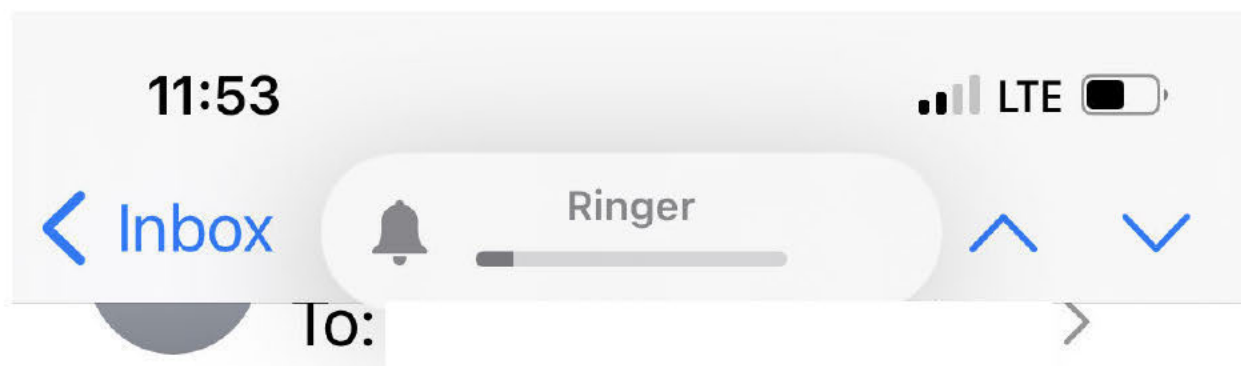

Attached to this message is a photo shot of an unsolicited e-mail I received in my personal email account. I received the message on [redacted] business solicitation from [redacted]

It appears to be some kind of [redacted]

[redacted] formerly was a [redacted] County. The county closed that [redacted] Court in [redacted]. Although I have had no contact with [redacted], I believe [redacted] continues to serve in a judicial capacity in [redacted] County. My recollection is that the Judicial Commission previously may have admonished Mr. [redacted] with respect to using his judicial status for improper purposes. I forward this information to the Commission consistent with my obligations under Rule 2.15, Arizona Code of Judicial Ethics.

I will be responsive to any further inquiries the Commission may have related to this matter.

CAUTION: This email originated from outside of the organization. Do not click links or open attachments unless you recognize the sender and know the content is safe.

Reminder: Referrals Invite

Reminder: from Court Judge has invited you to Alignable and is still waiting for your reply.

Forwarded Invite

Hi

It's from Court Judge in

I'd like to be able to refer customers to you, so I've added you to my network on Alignable, a site exclusively for business owners to network with each other.

Accept my invitation

(Note: this invite expires in 24 hours)

One added point: the e-mail I received states that Mr. [redacted] would like to refer "customers" to me. I have no private business interests, and hence no "customers."