

State of Arizona
COMMISSION ON JUDICIAL CONDUCT

Disposition of Complaint 22-314

Judge:

Complainant:

ORDER

October 20, 2022

The Complainant alleged a municipal court judge ignored a lawsuit he filed against the judge and the municipality.

The role of the Commission on Judicial Conduct is to impartially determine whether a judicial officer has engaged in conduct that violates the Arizona Code of Judicial Conduct or Article 6.1 of the Arizona Constitution. There must be clear and convincing evidence of such a violation in order for the Commission to take disciplinary action against a judicial officer.

The Commission reviewed all relevant available information and concluded there was not clear and convincing evidence of ethical misconduct in this matter. The complaint is therefore dismissed pursuant to Commission Rules 16(a) and 23(a).

Commission members Colleen E. Concannon and J. Tyrrell Taber did not participate in the consideration of this matter.

Copies of this order were distributed to all appropriate persons on October 20, 2022.

"Throw her out" is what I hear on my side of this conduct board.

I correctly opened a lawsuit against Mrs. _____ She did not respond and ignored over personal emails telling her to respond. . I want my lawsuit to be followed by Arizona codes not IGNORED TWICE.

Follow this if your just acting out and saving yourself from a lawsuit. Section _____ says I can sue government officials, why are you not responding.

There's specific guidelines that must be followed for lawsuits. She not only didn't assign me proper information or even dismiss my case. I'm a _____ and have tours with _____ from _____ and also I was just at _____ house from _____ Channel. I'm very respected when I am in goverment. With Mayors, Politicians, and I've worked with upcoming _____ I have an established name in town. My rights have been broken. A goverment building and facility and judge did not give me the right for a lawsuit. She thought she was sneaky. It started:

I submitted a lawsuit that said I was suing. Then I sent some motions accidentally after she asked me not too. (This was before the lawsuit and has nothing to do with it.) So my mom filed a motion to ignore my emails. I never gave my mom permission to do that. And she assumed after I sent numerous emails and follow ups that she needs to respond. She didn't. I thought there were steps she should have taken when someone speaks on my behalf. I'm older than _____ I was at that time neither given my right to sue in any way. So that's an honest mistake. Even though she still knew. And didn't try to dismiss it. Which it states. You must do. LITIGATION AGAINST STATE ENTITIES OR EMPLOYEES . These are the Arizona statutes

She knows I'm _____ and was scared and still is. I've had lawsuits with _____ stars and met lawyers. I know how this goes. Im a well civilized person. The second time a lawsuit was issued I did again with this time the intent to sue, she covered up her last one by not replying to this one either. Oh this is an investigation. Who knows if there's a record of my motions to sue, she probably ripped them. It was filed though. And I have the the emails for proof from the motion response back. But never heard from the judge. All automated. I told her you don't know who your dealing with and she sneakily did this so perfect to look like she did nothing wrong except she missed the fact that there's a court process that needs to happen, I know because I've had lawsuits as discussed before. I found the exact agency handbook (See link) for _____ and suing goverment officials. The exact statutes and processs. See link. She did nothing. Didn't even try to dismiss them. Was scared because I'm a celebrity and didn't respond. His then. This is now the second time she's tried this. This time in plan air with no excuses even though she missed steps and she should know the law and I told her I still wanted a lawsuit and can provide her personal email where I told her back then.

COMPLAINT AGAINST A JUDGE

Name _____ Judge's Name. _____

Instructions: Use this form or plain paper of the same size to file a complaint. Describe in your own words what you believe the judge did that constitutes judicial misconduct. I have rights, as this manual shows proof of, to the right to sue. Yes immunity is discussed in that article about suing, but it's not always voted upon that it's immunity. She had access to my lawsuit and never tried to dismiss because of immunity because she was scared when she followed the steps in that manual she would be liable. Which immunity does it cover things when suing government outside of the scope. Also section lawsuit states you can sue government officials and most of the time excludes immunity. It's all there, trust me I'm smart and almost have a bachelors degree. She continued to ignore my motions to anlawsuit. My constitutional right, a lot don't know but the right to petition or right to sue. (Look that up) is a right to lawsuit. Scholars and jurists agree that the First Amendment right "to petition the Government for a redress of grievances" includes a right of court access, but narrowly define this right as the right to file a lawsuit. So now that my rights are being broken, I'm entitled to section lawsuit. I meet the criteria at that point, but if I submit she will never respond. She's scared. That's what this whole manual is about. She did it twice with over emails to remind her. She worked strategically with my moms response (her mess up) she should have submitted that she is still entitled to speaking to me. Use your head here. I wrote demand letters and did all the correct things in criteria asked. On the first lawsuit I ended up making her a deal that said if she ignored an email I sent her. (At the time a threat) Because she already charged me once for threading her. I said I'd drop the lawsuit correctly. And of course she let this slide so she would get the proper response and not have to deal with it. Only to later be told that I was opening my second. Which she threw out in of her. She thought her strategic handling was right. I was never given my constitutional rights and she also knows she missed those steps and still knows by my email the list of Arizona statues for this, and still is scared. Won't respond to my lawsuit. I also sent links to the commission email of me in Arizona press and news sites as a celebrity being seen. Arizona and Arizona

I have a way to submit press releases and get this news coverage.

If you don't plan on reading the website above for Arizona statues on lawsuits against state entities it's pointless.

There's only like and most of them are broken.

What are the civil rights?

Examples of civil rights include the right to vote, the right to a fair trial, the right to government services, the right to a public education, and the right to use public facilities

The right to a fair trial for my lawsuit and the right to government services .

And

And my constitutional right. The right to petition the government. Which includes filing a lawsuit.
