ORDER

September 29, 2023

The complainant alleged a superior court judge pro tem set a bond too low in a criminal case.

The role of the Commission on Judicial Conduct is to impartially determine whether a judicial officer has engaged in conduct that violates the Arizona Code of Judicial Conduct or Article 6.1 of the Arizona Constitution. There must be clear and convincing evidence of such a violation in order for the Commission to take disciplinary action against a judicial officer.

The Commission does not have jurisdiction to overturn, amend, or remand a judicial officer's legal rulings. The Commission reviewed all relevant available information and concluded there was not clear and convincing evidence of ethical misconduct in this matter. The complaint is therefore dismissed pursuant to Commission Rules 16(a) and 23(a).

Commission member Barbara Brown did not participate in the consideration of this matter.

Copies of this order were distributed to all appropriate persons on September 29, 2023.

A Police Officer was viciously attacked on [ ] near [ ] - 7 charges,
2 felonies - after a violent DV act with a baby present.

For [ ] the criminal who did this is able to be back on the streets. Someone this violent should not be out on the streets. (See articles in comments.) The suspect, [ ] appeared before Judge Pro Tem [ ] and had bail set at [ ], So, yes, for [ ] he can be back on the streets. Attempted murder of a police officer requires considerably more bail than that. Someone this violent should not be out on the streets.

We cannot have judges who take attacks on our police officers so lightly and let violent people easily be back on our streets.

If we do not attract and keep officers in [ ], you are wasting energy on all your causes you work for since [ ] will not be safe for ANYone.
