

State of Arizona
COMMISSION ON JUDICIAL CONDUCT

Disposition of Complaint 23-260

Judge:

Complainant:

ORDER

October 24, 2023

The complainant alleged a superior court judge was involved in a conspiracy to take money in his divorce case.

The role of the Commission on Judicial Conduct is to impartially determine whether a judicial officer has engaged in conduct that violates the Arizona Code of Judicial Conduct or Article 6.1 of the Arizona Constitution. There must be clear and convincing evidence of such a violation in order for the Commission to take disciplinary action against a judicial officer.

The Commission does not have jurisdiction to overturn, amend, or remand a judicial officer's legal rulings. The Commission reviewed all relevant available information and concluded there was not clear and convincing evidence of ethical misconduct in this matter. The complaint is therefore dismissed pursuant to Commission Rules 16(a) and 23(a).

Commission members Barbara Brown and Christopher P. Staring did not participate in the consideration of this matter.

Copies of this order were distributed to all appropriate persons on October 24, 2023.

1) Judge accepted money 2) It was live on Shows 3) It was a domestic trial instead of a divorce trial. 4) She tried to have a sit down on a later date after I file a appeal to discuss the properties, money, and cars. 5) and committed Lottery Fraud to gain my assets. was a that messed with my wife knowingly she was married. They had a little girl together, while I was out-of-town taking care of my mother. I was told Judge is mother. 6) I filed a appeal with the Court Of Appeals and had his wife/girlfriend working as the clerk, while he was sitting in the parking lot. My appeal was abandon because of her and messing with my paperwork. 7) Weeks later Judge daughter claimed she was the new owner of a bunch of our businesses. Like yard, bookstores, and other warehouses. was running around collecting money from my businesses. They knew my wife was rule 101 and forced her to sign a bunch of things that I can only sign.
