	Disposition of Complaint 23-316
Judge:
Complainant:

ORDER

January 12, 2024

The Complainant alleged improper legal rulings by a justice of the peace hearing a civil case.

The role of the Commission on Judicial Conduct is to impartially determine whether a judicial officer has engaged in conduct that violates the Arizona Code of Judicial Conduct or Article 6.1 of the Arizona Constitution. There must be clear and convincing evidence of such a violation in order for the Commission to take disciplinary action against a judicial officer.

The Commission does not have jurisdiction to overturn, amend, or remand a judicial officer's legal rulings. The Commission reviewed all relevant available information and concluded there was not clear and convincing evidence of ethical misconduct in this matter. The complaint is therefore dismissed pursuant to Commission Rules 16(a) and 23(a).

Commission member Barbara Brown did not participate in the consideration of this matter.

Copies of this order were distributed to all appropriate persons on January 12, 2024.

rulings on both of my venue motions are contained in attachments 5 and 6, attached hereto. In both rulings, deliberately ignored Arizona law, I believe, to help by keeping my case in her precinct, so future court rulings would benefit him.

I filed a Request for Clarification on seeking to understand why the Court had changed the Plaintiff to an and why the Court denied my venue motions. Attachment (10).

On entered an order, attached as (11) in which the Court said:

The first assertion may serve to explain why the court ignored Arizona law on the subject of venue in Courts, but it strongly raises the question of who provided this idea to changed As to the second statement about , it suggests why practicing law without a the Plaintiff to an . I had raised the issue of license by observing that if she was not a real party in interest, she appeared to be trying to represent something called to his captioned plaintiff thus decided to "help" by adding eligible to act on behalf of the plaintiff. [As making, in her mind, was a ". an aside, the managing member of " and in records. was not even mentioned. This issue, among others, is the subject of a complaint to the consumer fraud office, Arizona Attorney General.]

As to the statement about the statute of limitations, "
." To say this statement is ridiculous is an understatement. The "debt" has nothing to do with the statute of limitations, it is when a default occurs in payment of the debt that the statute begins to run. In this case, years after the default the claim is barred, a concept unfortunately beyond understanding. Attachment (11).

Additionally, denied two very appropriate and necessary motions. Because of the issues of a 1)real party in interest, 2)who was the provider to whom money was allegedly owed, 3)was there an assignment of a debt and 4)how were damages calculated, I filed a motion for a more definite statement. It was unopposed and denied. I believe the court did not want this information disclosed as it would hamper collection scheme which is the subject of the consumer fraud complaint.

denied an additional motion raising the issue of indispensable parties. This was directed to the "providers" whose patient ledgers showed large sums of money owed to them. Without these parties, a complete resolution of the claims presented would not be possible. There was no opposition to this motion, yet it was denied.

Additional evidence to support my suspicion of collusion between is: After no one appeared at a mediation conference and on behalf of Plaintiff and the case was set for dismissal. on her own motion vacated the dismissal order and ordered a second mediation conference so that the parties would have another chance to resolve their , as mediator differences without trial. The second mediation, with was a high pressure ordeal during which said he had spoken with the judge and I would certainly lose. I don't suggest that this statement was true, but it does indicate confidence that nothing would come of it. position, denying there The mediator appeared to fully support were any defenses available to me, including statute of limitations.

Conclusion: may be just incompetent, but the overall picture I was shown strongly suggests her actions were more than that. I urge the commission to thoroughly investigate what has and is transpiring in the Court.
