AMENDING ARIZONA CODE OF	)
JUDICIAL ADMINISTRATION § 1-305:	)	Administrative Order
SELECTION OF SPECIAL JUDICIAL	)	No. 2004 - 101
OFFICERS	)	(Affecting Administrative
	)	Order No. 2002-66)

Effective November 22, 2004, Proposition 103 amended Article VI, section 31 of the Constitution of Arizona to provide that justices of the peace pro tempore are not subject to the qualifications contained in Article VI, section 22, including the qualification that a judge must be a lawyer. This change removes the constitutional impediment to having non-lawyer judges pro tempore in justice court recognized in the Chief Justice's memorandum of June 21, 2002 and requires an amendment to ACJA § 1-305 providing for selection of special judicial officers.

Pursuant to the Arizona Code of Judicial Administration, § 1-201 (E), the Chief Justice may adopt emergency administrative code proposals and technical changes in existing code sections by administrative order without prior distribution for comment and action by the Arizona Judicial Council. An amendment to the above captioned section of the Arizona Code of Judicial Administration having been approved and recommended for adoption,

Now, therefore, pursuant to Article VI, Section 3, of the Arizona Constitution,

IT IS ORDERED that Arizona Code of Judicial Administration § 1-305 is amended as indicated on the attached document. All other provisions of § 1-305, as originally adopted, remain unchanged and in effect.

Dated this 15th day of December, 2004.
