No. 93-50

The Supreme Court, having administrative supervision over all courts of the state pursuant to the Constitution of Arizona, Article VI, periodically conducts reviews and audits of operations.

Pursuant to the foregoing authority the Supreme Court has been conducting an audit and review of the operations of the San Luis Municipal Court. In pursuance of the objectives of the audit and to assure its viability and to assure the independent operation of the court,

IT IS NOW ORDERED as follows:

Until further order of the Court, all books and records of the San Luis Municipal Court are placed in the constructive possession of the presiding Judge of the Superior Court of Yuma, Arizona, and, in particular, in the constructive possession of the Honorable H. Stewart Bradshaw, or his designees.

Although constructive possession of the books and records of the San Luis Municipal Court is being hereby transferred to Judge Bradshaw, the Court recognizes that physical possession of the books and records is presently at the San Luis Municipal Court. Therefore,

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that, until further order of the Court, no person, other than Honorable H. Stewart Bradshaw or his designess, or the Administrative Director of the Courts or his designee, shall remove from the premises of the San Luis Municipal Court any paper or record of any type whatsoever for any reason whatsoever, nor shall any such paper or record be defaced, altered or destroyed. This order is intended to and does apply to all personnel of the San Luis Municipal Court, including the judge, the clerk, the deputy clerks, all employees of the court, city officials and any agents or representatives of any of the foregoing named individuals. Service of this order is authorized by in-person delivery or by on-site delivery by Karen Karowski or any other Administrative Office of the Courts employee.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that pursuant to Article 6, Section 3 of the Arizona Constitution, Judge Mark A. Espinoza is hereby assigned to perform duties under the supervision of Presiding Superior Court Judge H. Stewart Bradshaw, and he shall perform no duties except those expressly assigned to him by the named individuals.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that administrative control of the Court shall be assumed by Judge Bradshaw. Judge Bradshaw may issue any order required to ensure the proper independent operation of the San Luis Municipal Court. Judge Bradshaw shall take appropriate steps to secure the court and its records, and provide for independent and proper operations of the court.
