A certificate holder may file a response with the board no later than fifteen days after the date of the advisory letter. The certificate holder's response is confidential and division staff shall file the response in the complaint file.
- (2) An informal disciplinary proceeding may result in a letter of concern but may not include a censure, restrictions on a certificate, probation, mandated additional training, suspension or revocation of the certificate, or imposition of civil penalties or costs. A letter of concern is a written informal discipline sanction and is not confidential or appealable. A certificate holder may file a response to the letter of concern no later than fifteen days after the date of the letter of concern. The certificate holder's response is public and division staff shall file the response in the complaint file.
- (3) The board may impose informal discipline in combination with formal discipline.

I. Policies and Procedures for Board Members. The purpose of a board is to assist the supreme court in the protection of the public through the certification and oversight of certificate holders, to ensure conformance by certificate holders to the highest ethical standards and performance of responsibilities in a professional and competent manner.

1. Establishment of Boards and Appointment and Terms of Members. The establishment of the boards and the appointment and terms of members are specified in subsections (D)(5)(a) and (b).
2. Role and Responsibilities of Board Members. In addition to the provisions of subsection

(D)(5)(c), the following provisions apply:

- a. Role. The primary role of the board members is protection of the public through the fair and impartial application of the applicable section of the ACJA and court rules. Members should consider the views and interests of regulated professionals and the profession; however, members shall balance this against the member's primary role of protection of the public.
- b. Attendance. Members shall attend and actively participate in board meetings and assist with the administration of board affairs. Regular attendance by each member of the board helps ensure full contribution of all members. Therefore, members are required to regularly attend and participate in board meetings. The board chair shall address a board-attendance issue regarding a member as follows:
  - (1) A board-attendance problem occurs if a member:
    - (a) Has two consecutive un-notified absences where the member did not provide advance notification to division staff the member would be absent;
    - (b) Has three consecutive absences where the member did provide advance notification to division staff the member would be absent; or
    - (c) Misses one third of the total number of regular board meetings in a twelve month period.
  - (2) Upon determination of a board-attendance problem, the chair shall discuss the issue with the member. The chair shall share the member's response at the next board meeting and the board shall consider the appropriate action to take regarding the member's membership on the board. If the board decides to recommend to the chief justice for the termination of the membership of the member, the chair shall inform the member of the board's decision. The chair shall request a letter of resignation from the member and the return of any board materials. The board shall promptly initiate the process for the recruitment and recommendation of a new member.
- c. Expenses. Members shall not receive compensation for their services, but may receive reimbursement for their travel and other expenses incidental to the performance of their duties, pursuant to the adopted state guidelines.
- d. Gifts and Awards. A member shall not solicit or accept any gift or award from any professional certified individual, business or association, including a testamentary gift, unless the member or other recipient of the gift is related to the provider of the gift or award. For the purposes of this paragraph, "gift" includes money, services, travel, food, or entertainment and "related persons" includes a spouse, child, grandchild, parent, grandparent or other relative or individual with whom the member maintains a close, familial relationship. It is acceptable for the board or a member to accept an award, in recognition of service, from an association not directly related to their respective professional association, for example, the American Judicature Society.

- e. Contractual Arrangements. A member shall carefully consider entering into any contractual arrangement with any professional certificate holder for the provision of any services related to the associated profession. The member shall consider whether such an association could result in a conflict of interest, or the appearance of a conflict of interest.
- f. Referrals. A member shall carefully consider whether to recommend the services of any professional certificate holder to a member of the public or to accept a referral from a regulated professional or regulated business. The member shall consider whether a referral could result in a conflict of interest, or the appearance of a conflict of interest.
- g. Professional Associations. A member shall not serve simultaneously as an officer or board member of a professional association for the regulated profession and as a member of the board.

3. Organization.

- a. Chair. The chief justice shall designate the chair of the board, unless otherwise designated by the applicable ACJA section. If the chair resigns or ceases to be a member of the board, the chief justice shall appoint another person, either an existing member of the board or a new appointee, to serve as chair. The chair shall perform the duties normally associated with the office and shall preside over all general meetings of the board.
- b. Vice Chair. The board shall elect a vice chair from among the appointed members of the board. The vice chair shall serve in the capacity as vice chair for a specified term. If the vice chair resigns or ceases to be a member of the board, the board shall vote to elect a new vice chair from among the existing members. The vice chair shall act as chair in the absence of the chair.
- c. Subcommittees. The chair or the board may establish such subcommittees as deemed necessary to adequately serve the needs of the applicable program. Each subcommittee shall consist of a chair to be named by the board chair or the board and members who volunteer and are approved for service. The chair or the board may appoint additional individuals who are not appointed members of the board to a subcommittee. A subcommittee shall exist only so long as it serves a current, useful purpose. A subcommittee may be dissolved by the board chair or the board if it is deemed it has fulfilled its purpose.

4. Meetings.

- a. Regular Meetings. The board shall meet no less than six times per year for regular meetings, unless other applicable ACJA sections state otherwise. The board chair may call additional regular meetings at the discretion of the board chair.
- b. Emergency Meetings. The board chair may call emergency meetings of the board upon a showing of good cause, including consideration of the emergency suspension of a certificate pursuant to subsection (H)(5)(c)(6).
- c. Public Notice. All meetings shall be publicly noticed and open to the public, in compliance with ACJA § 1-202.
- d. Quorum. The board shall have a quorum for all official actions. A quorum consists of a majority of the board.

5. Actions.

- a. Voting. A majority of the votes shall decide motions arising at any meeting of the board. All members may vote on any motion. All votes shall be taken by voice vote, signified by “aye” or “nay.” Any board member may require a recorded vote, to include the number of “ayes” or “nays” and the specific vote of the member requesting the recorded vote. In the case of an equality of votes the motion is defeated. A declaration by the chair a motion has carried and an entry to that effect in the minutes is admissible in evidence as prima facie proof of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favor of or against such resolution being necessary.
- b. Recusal. A member shall recuse from discussing and voting on an issue pertaining to an applicant or certificate holder who is related to the member or in any other situations where there is a conflict of interest, or may be the appearance of a conflict of interest.

(1) For the purposes of this subsection:

- (a) “related” includes the relationships of parent, child, sibling, spouse or cohabitant;
- (b) “conflict of interest” includes situations where the member has a direct or indirect substantial interest in any contract, sale, purchase or service to the board or the AOC or who has, or whose relative has, a substantial interest in any decision of the board, or the existence of any situation where there is, or may be an appearance that the relationship is one that would affect the member’s ability to be impartial. The fact a member or the entire board has been named in a lawsuit by an applicant or certificate holder does not automatically constitute a conflict of interest requiring the recusal of the member in an issue relating to the applicant or certificate holder.

- (2) The purpose of this recusal provision is to remove or limit the possibility of personal influence which might bear upon a member's official decision, or provide the appearance of any impropriety in the member's decision.
    - (3) A member may seek legal advice regarding specific conflicts of interest or other ethical issues pertaining to membership and action from the AOC legal counsel.
    - (4) The member shall recuse at the beginning of the discussion of the issue by the board, or at the first instance the member realizes the conflict. The member shall not participate in the discussion by the board and shall leave the meeting room during board discussion of the issue in executive session. The recusal shall be noted in the official minutes of the meeting.
  - c. A member shall not designate a proxy for attendance or voting.
6. Staff. Under the direction of the chief justice, the director shall provide staff to assist and support the board and may conduct or coordinate research as recommended by the board.
7. Communications.
- a. Board members shall not engage in improper ex parte communications with a hearing officer, other board members or division staff as to the merits of a case regarding an individual or business entity application for certification or a complaint alleging acts or misconduct or violations of statutes, court rules, or the ACJA that have been filed against a certificate holder. Except as may be provided in the applicable sections of the ACJA, all communications among a board member, division staff or a hearing officer in these situations shall occur during board meetings.
  - b. AOC legal counsel shall provide legal advice for the board. The Office of the Arizona Attorney General provides legal representation to the board as an entity or individual member, consistent with the Arizona constitution and statutes. AOC legal counsel shall coordinate with the Attorney General for representation.
  - c. Board members shall not engage in ex parte communications with applicants for certification or certificate holders regarding the board's action or potential action. Members shall not engage in ex parte communications with any other person, including the attorney of record of an applicant or certificate holder.
  - d. Board members should refer all contacts from the media to the AOC public information officer.
  - e. Board members shall maintain the confidentiality of all information provided to the board during confidential executive sessions of the board and other documents that are confidential pursuant to court rules or law.

- f. Board members should always be cognizant they are seen as representatives of the board and the program at professional gatherings and in public settings, including, for example, at the legislature. Board members should not speak for the board unless specifically authorized to do so. A board member shall make the following statement, either verbally or in writing, or both, “the views and opinions expressed are my own and do not represent the views or opinion of the board, the AOC or the Arizona Supreme Court.”
- g. Board members shall refer inquiries from the public, certificate holders, applicants for certification and other governmental and private entities regarding matters within the board’s jurisdiction to division staff. Division staff, in coordination with the board chair, shall refer appropriate issues to the full board at a regularly scheduled board meeting.
- h. These provisions apply to all forms of communication, including verbal, written and electronic.
