

AGENDA

ARIZONA STATE, TRIBAL & FEDERAL COURT FORUM

Friday, December 7, 2001
10:00 a.m. - 3:00 p.m.

Judicial Education Center
Phoenix, AZ 85007

- I. Call to Order
- II. Approval of January 19, 2001 meeting report
- III. Status Reports:
 - A. Tribal Laws and Courts Work Group - Judge Hutt
 - 1. Repository Subcommittee - Kate Rosier and Judge Ehrlich report on ASU interest.
 - 2. Current internet resources - National Indian Court Judges Association, Native American Rights Fund, University of Oklahoma Law Center, Tribal Law and Policy Institute - report on Arizona materials available by David Withey.
 - B. Intergovernmental Cooperation Work Group - Judge Ehrlich
 - 1. Benchbook topic draft on state traffic rights of way on Indian reservations - Jim Redpath
 - 2. Benchbook topic draft on service of process on Indian reservations - Hon. Gary La Rance
 - 3. Benchbook topic draft on non-Indian offenses committed on Indian reservations - Diane Humetewa
 - 4. Benchbook topic draft on transfer process for ICWA, domestic violence and child support - David Osterfeld
 - 5. Benchbook topic draft on extradition from reservations - Gary LaRance

- C. Education Work Group - Kate Rosier
 - 1. Incorporate tribal law and jurisdiction materials into Arizona new judge orientation materials.
 - 2. Invite state judges to ASU/ICJA education programs.
 - 3. ASU professors to develop enforcement of tribal judgments handbook for state and tribal judges.
 - 4. Internet connection available to tribal judges with list of internet resources available.

- D. QUADRO legislative proposal - David Withey

IV New Business:

- A. Is a service of process court rule needed in light of Nevada v. Hicks and Zaman? Discussion.

- B. Criminal jurisdiction over non-Indians - David Withey

- C. Full faith and credit for domestic violence orders - Catherine Drezak, Administrative Office of the Courts

- D. Court forum web pages - David Withey

V. Next Meetings of Forum and Work Groups

VI. Call to the Public

VII. Adjourn

I.

MAP TO SITE

(INCLUDING PARKING AND LODGING OPTIONS)

