Rule 14. Motions for Reconsideration

Where the court accepts new evidence on appeal or conducts a trial de novo as provided in Rule 10 or 11 of these rules, a motion for new trial pursuant to Rule 59, Ariz. R. Civ. Proc., may be filed by any party. In all other cases, any party desiring reconsideration of a decision or order of the superior court which finally disposes of the administrative appeal, except for an order denying a motion for reconsideration, may file a motion for reconsideration pursuant to Rule 7.1, Ariz. R. Civ. Proc. IV(H), Uniform Rules of Practice.

Accompanying the motion shall be a memorandum which states, with particularity, the points of law or fact which the movant contends the court has decided incorrectly.

Within 10 days thereafter, an opposing party may file a response to such motion. On a motion for reconsideration, there shall be no oral argument unless otherwise directed by the court.
